

Handbag of Life

A framework to guide and inspire on life's daily journey in business

Have you let opportunities pass you by or do you think that you just can't do something, because you are not smart enough, don't have the experience, too short, too old and the list goes on?

Are you a woman in business or in the workforce questioning where you are heading? Do your inner thoughts resonate is there more?

Clearly, the success of women in business and the workforce should be there for all to achieve ...and it is!

Invest in your future and be immersed in a presentation tailored for women in business looking for "more than a job" and / or women negotiating their career ladder.

Using an analogy of the "Handbag of Life" as a support capsule Michelle will share with you tips and strategies drawing from her real life experiences as a business women over the last 25 years along with memorable prompts for survival and moreover success.